

Press Release – For Immediate Release

Let the firing of the cannon begin!

The Santa Maria opens for her 17th season

On April 12, 2008, The Columbus Santa Maria will open for her 17th season with a flag raising ceremony presented by the sea cadets at noon along with cannon fire. All tours that day will be 99 cents per person for anyone 5 years and older, under the age of 5 is free.

Come visit our new invisibility display, “the Santa Maria Experiment” in our visitor/education center and meet Marshall Barnes, its creator.

The Santa Maria is a full size historical preservation of Christopher Columbus’ flagship. She is located in downtown Columbus, OH in lower Battelle Riverfront Park, 25 Marconi Blvd. She serves as a history museum. Columbus, OH is the largest city in the world named for the famous explorer. Our “Seeds of Change Visitor/Education Center” is located next to the ship with information on how the world was changed forever as a result of Columbus’ voyages. For more information please call the office 614.645.8760 or check our website www.santamaria.org.
